- 8.3 Lockout: During the term of this Agreement, the Employer will not cause or engage in any lockout of its employees.

ARTICLE 9—HOURS OF WORK

- 9.1 Except as otherwise provided, eight (8) consecutive hours exclusive of a meal period shall constitute a day's work. The work week shall be defined as forty (40) hours per week. The Employer will guarantee seven full-time Operator positions, as defined in Article 15.1. This does not constitute a guarantee of minimum or maximum number of hours, except that Operators scheduled for weekend work will be given every opportunity to work a full eight (8) hour shift. An effort will be made to give Full Time operators 40 hours in a week. Operators may use their floating holidays in one-hour increments to increase their hours for the work week to 40 hours. The Employer, whenever possible, will provide two consecutive days off. The work week may change at the discretion of the Employer.
- 9.2 Depending on operational and training requirements, On-Call Operators will not be scheduled for work if Regular Full-Time/Part-Time Operators are available, unless (1) the scheduling of Regular Full-Time or Part-Time Operators could potentially put the Full-Time or Part-Time employees over their employment status hours as defined in Article 15.1, or (2) peak work demand periods require concurrent coverage in addition to the scheduled Regular Full-Time and Part-Time Operators. Based on total weekly hours, an attempt will be made to give senior members higher total hours over members with less seniority.

ARTICLE 10—OVERTIME

- 10.1 Overtime is to be paid at time and one half the employees' regular rate of pay for hours worked over 40 hours in one work week except that part time Operators will receive time and one half the employees regular rate of pay for hours worked over ten (10) hours or more in one work day. - 11.1 Meal periods of 30 minutes will be scheduled in compliance with Washington State Law. An extended meal period, up to 60 minutes, may be approved, subject to operational or training constraints. Weekend Operators have the option of waiving or taking a lunch, based on management discretion, by coordinating their request with Dispatch 24 hours in advance of their shift.
- 11.2 Rest periods will be scheduled in compliance with Washington State Law. Eligible and scheduled rest periods will be 15 minutes in length and will be scheduled as near as possible to the midpoint of each four hours worked, subject to operational constraints. Two 15 minutes rest periods will be given on any shift of seven (7) hours or more. One 15 minute rest period will be given on shifts less than seven (7) hours, but more than three (3) hours. When an employee is also eligible for a scheduled meal period, it will be the objective of the Scheduler and or Dispatcher to schedule meal and rest periods(s) in a manner that approximates equal length work periods, subject to operational constraints.

ARTICLE 12—SENIORITY

- 12.1 A seniority roster shall be posted on the employee bulletin board every three- (3) months showing the name of each employee and the date each employee entered the service of the Employer and/or date of transfer to the operating location. The seniority of each present, future, regular full-time, regular part-time, and/or on-call employee, shall be as defined in 12.2, 12.3, and 12.10 for layoffs, recall, and vacations.
- 12.2 Seniority as defined for lay-offs and recall shall be the length of their continuous service, commencing with the date of hire. The job being relatively equal, seniority shall govern in layoffs and recall to the bargaining unit. Lay-offs resulting through a reduction of forces will not be considered as a break in continuous service if it does not exceed six (6) months. Lay-offs shall be conducted in inverse order of seniority. Recall shall be conducted in order of seniority. Transferring employee's seniority date shall be the date of hire at the Longview worksite.
- 12.3 Seniority shall be determined by the date of hire or transfer to the location. Seniority for employees hired on the same day will be determined by the last four digits of the Social Security number with the higher being most senior. Seniority will exist by date of placement within a job classification for shift bidding or layoff purposes.
- 12.4 Absence on account of illness or injury which prevents the employee from working at their occupation shall cause no loss of seniority by the employee, except as provided for in 12.6 of this Agreement.
- 12.5 Authorized leaves of absence less than six (6) months shall cause no loss of seniority by the employee.
- 12.6 Except for leaves of absence caused by illness or injury, other authorized leaves of absence in excess of six (6) months will result in the loss of seniority, day-to-day, by each employee until his/her return to work. Leaves of absence for illness or injury shall result in the loss of seniority after one year. For cases of industrial illness or injury, loss of seniority shall occur after two years. The Employer may require a doctor's slip verifying the illness or injury or an employee's ability to return to work. The six months, one-year, and two-year leaves of absence include leaves of absence granted under state and federal leave laws.
- 12.7 When the employment of any employee is terminated voluntarily or is terminated for cause, the employee shall lose all existing seniority.
- 12.8 It is the responsibility of the employee to keep on file at the office of the Employer his/her current address and telephone number where he/she can be reached in the event of recall. Employees recalled to duty will respond as quickly as possible, but in no event, later than fifteen (15) calendar days from the date written notice of recall has been sent to the employee. If any employee does not report for duty within fifteen (15) calendar days, he/she shall be considered out of service and his/her name removed from the seniority roster.

- 12.9 Employees moving to a supervisory position shall retain their seniority during the first twelve (12) months in such positions, and shall suffer no loss of seniority if they return to a represented position within that time.

Employees remaining in supervisory positions for more than twelve (12) months shall lose all seniority if they return to a represented position. If returning to a represented position after more than twelve (12) months in a supervisory position, employees' wage and benefits will be determined by such employee's original date of hire with the Employer.

Employees moving to a non-supervisory, non-represented position shall retain their seniority for their probationary period plus one month. In no event shall this right exceed four months.

A temporary position is an assignment where a member of the collective bargaining unit is assigned to a position titled temporary. A temporary position is entitled to a one-time assignment with a definite end date unless mutually extended and agreed upon by the employer, union, and the affected employee.

- 12.10 No employee shall acquire any seniority until he/she has completed ninety (90) calendar days of employment with the company. The probationary period will be 90 calendar days of continuous employment with the company. The employer shall have no obligation to re-employ a probationary employee if he/she is terminated during his or her probationary period.
- 12.11 All new job vacancies for full-time Operators must be filled in order of seniority from the regular part-time Operators. Part-time positions will be offered to on-call Operators in order of seniority.
- 12.12 All new job vacancies for full-time Dispatchers must be filled in order of seniority from the regular part-time Dispatchers. Part-time positions will be offered to on-call Dispatchers in order of seniority.
- 12.13 For shift bidding purposes, all employees will bid within their job classification based on their seniority date of the job class. This requirement shall not apply to employees on a rotating shift. Job classifications shall be separated by full-time positions and part-time positions.
- 12.14 For the purpose of wage step classification for Paratransit Services' employees who transfer from another location, they will receive credit for overall time in service with the Employer. Seniority for all other purposes will begin with the date of transfer to this location.

ARTICLE 13—CASUAL OPERATORS

- 13.1 Employees from the Employers other locations may be used as fill-in Operators, if no other member of the Bargaining Unit is available to perform the work.
